Linda,

Have fun in high school, and good luck in the years after. Your friend and mine

Bobbie 2.

and mine
Bobbie
V.

To Linda,

Don't you dare forget the wandering gey, that's me I wait you the very, very best wishes and good luck on the years to come

Love ya,
Milly

Good luck even if you are a fink; not really,
your buddy,
Mel

[illegible]

Linda,
Loads of sweet luck to a real sweet girl - I wish you all the success you deserve. Dennis Gorman

Lin Best of Luck Always to a sweet girl.
Mae

Linda,
Lots of Luck especially in Geometry!
(You'll find out you know I won't) Diane Johnston

Lin,
Good luck always to a very sweet girl who is a blast to be with.
Good Luck,
Cheryl Atkinson

Linda,
Best of luck to a real nice girl.
Paula Hatelunda

Linda,
Don't forget the fun we had. Don't forget the fun year. Don't forget the fun with a nutty as you are. Stay as funny

Linda,
Good Luck in all the plays. You a cute kid with a lot of talent! (especially in dramatic readings).
Be good!
Cheryl

Linda,
To a fellow Spirit! Good Luck!
Sally

Dear Linda, lots
I wish you and
and lots of luck and and lots of love and success in all you do.
I wish you and
as off to you.
Love,
Charlotte

REFLECTIONS

LOCKPORT WEST HIGH SCHOOL
LOCKPORT, ILLINOIS

Art: L. L. Schamp

Just as the mirror reflects an image or likeness, yesterday, too is reflected by its triumphs, its tragedies, and, indeed, its very being. Yesterday's every second, minute, and hour retains a minute part of itself to reflect for today and tomorrow. For us yesterday is images in a mirror which carry us into the past. By these reflections we relive a fleeting moment, a peaceful hour, a joyous day, an exciting year. Our purpose, as editors, is not to reckon with tomorrow but to focus our attention upon yesterday. Now we present to you the 1966 SHIELD, a reflection of the year gone by.

SENIOR MEMORIES

The Senior class took the Box was cheered by the Homecoming crowd.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS: Larry Ring, Treasurer; Curtis Dunn, President; Carol Hildebrand, Secretary.

Senior memories to many included wearing someone's ring.

Class planning took much thought and research. Doug Lotstrom and Sue Thomas discuss, and a long neck is vertical.

DIVISION PAGES FEATURE RODRIQUE'S ARTWORK

"Reflections" was the theme chosen by this year's SHIELD staff, headed by Virginia Epers. Larry Farman, assistant editor in charge of photography, strove to carry out the theme in the pictures. Barb Haggerty wrote the essay on reflections and edited copy. Bonnie Sediak was in charge of layout—combining all the elements into an attractive arrangement.

The traditional blue and white colors were again retained on the cover and liner. Artwork that carried out the theme of reflections was utilized on the title and division pages.

This year the staff has worked to learn more about yearbook journalism. A seminar was held for all staff members during homerooms in the fall; a workshop was held by the publishers; four staff members will be attending a week session at Northern Illinois University during the summer.

Tony Rodrique drew the division pages while Antoinette Winterkamp designed the title page.

Marie Simunovich was in charge of the faculty section.

Linda Riccio handled the honors section while Donna Batulich covered sports.

Doug Lofstrom and Sue Thomas planned the activities and organizations sections.

EDITORIAL STAFF. Mary Delrose, Linda Cavoretto, Bill Hayes, Jacki Linich, Linda Meinke.

Doris Webster compiled the index.

YEARBOOK WORKSHOP

A FIRST AT WEST

The Lockport West Yearbook staff played host to students and sponsors from Hinsdale South, Lake Geneva, and Lockport Central High Schools at a special workshop. The purpose of the workshop was to educate students working on yearbooks to the latest trends and techniques in photography and yearbook preparation. Only a few schools were invited to permit a smaller teacher-student ratio, thereby enabling the students to ask more questions.

Mr. Glue, a yearbook technician from the Kansas plant of Inter Collegiate Press, the publishers of the SHIELD, and Mr. Erickson, the publisher's local representative, presented a slide program demonstrating do's and don'ts in yearbooking.

Mr. Glue showed the latest in yearbook styles

Students had an opportunity to see other yearbooks.

Mr. Erickson, representative of the publisher, arranged the meeting

Carole Schott and Gail Prchal get some ideas and discard some ideas

Approximately one hundred '65 yearbooks were available for inspection

... Many Activities

All activities of homecoming are supervised by the Student Council

Student Council members find time for study even while on duty in the Student Council office

Co-presidents John Levesque and Ben Alexander conducted assemblies

The purposes of the Student Council are to promote good relations between the administration and the student body, to encourage student participation in school activities, and to recommend ways in which our school may be improved

The Student Council is an organization consisting of forty-five students elected by their respective classes. John Levesque and Ben Alexander were co-presidents, and Jackie Christopher was the secretary

Plans for the 1965-1966 school year included a New Year's Eve Dance and a Student Government Day. A constitution was being written. LWHS also played host to the member schools of the Southeast Suburban Conference. Money raising projects were held in order to bring a foreign exchange student to our school next year

RETURN THE

Lockport West's second homecoming continued many traditions begun last year. Floats, displays, sports, and the game commanded the center of attention. The Band, in addition to presenting a snappy half-time show, took top honors in the float competition with their animated Spartan Spray can that "kills 'em dead!" The GAA, despite difficulties with their palm trees, uprooted the competition and took second place honors.

Although work on homecoming floats and other activities, began months before, the official action began with the Pageant Day Assembly. The four girls in each class receiving the most votes from their classmates were introduced. Ben Alexander, Student Council co-president, then read the names of the girls receiving the most votes, as tabulated by the Future Teachers.

And Ginneth leads the cheers...

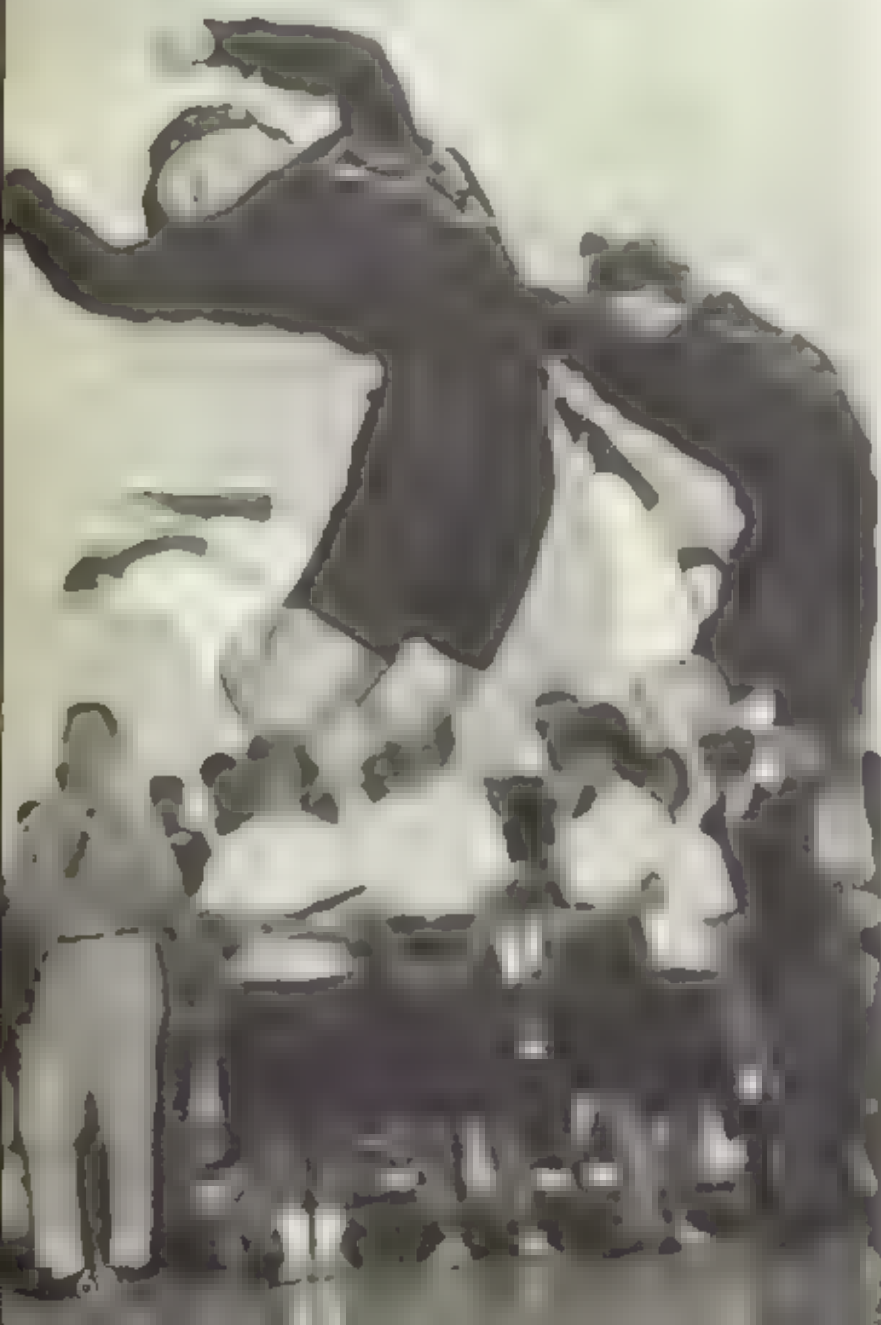

Bill Hayes, Booster Club co-president, lights the bonfire.

The four class attendants and the Queen and King, who was chosen by members of the football team, regally graced the remainder of the homecoming activities.

Due to inclement weather the bonfire scheduled for Thursday night was rescheduled for Friday morning. After the students huddled around the bonfire, they expressed their undampened spirits in a pep assembly in the auditorium.

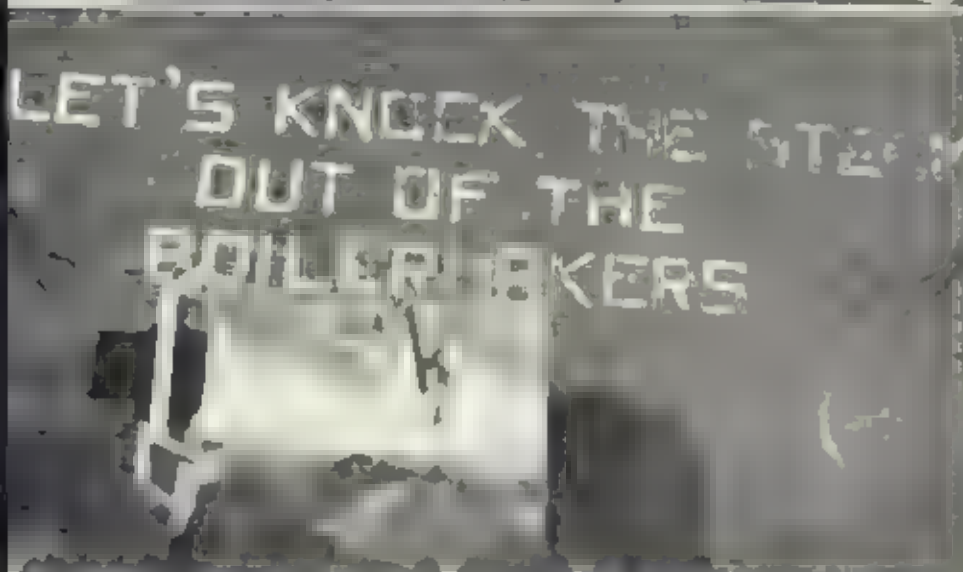

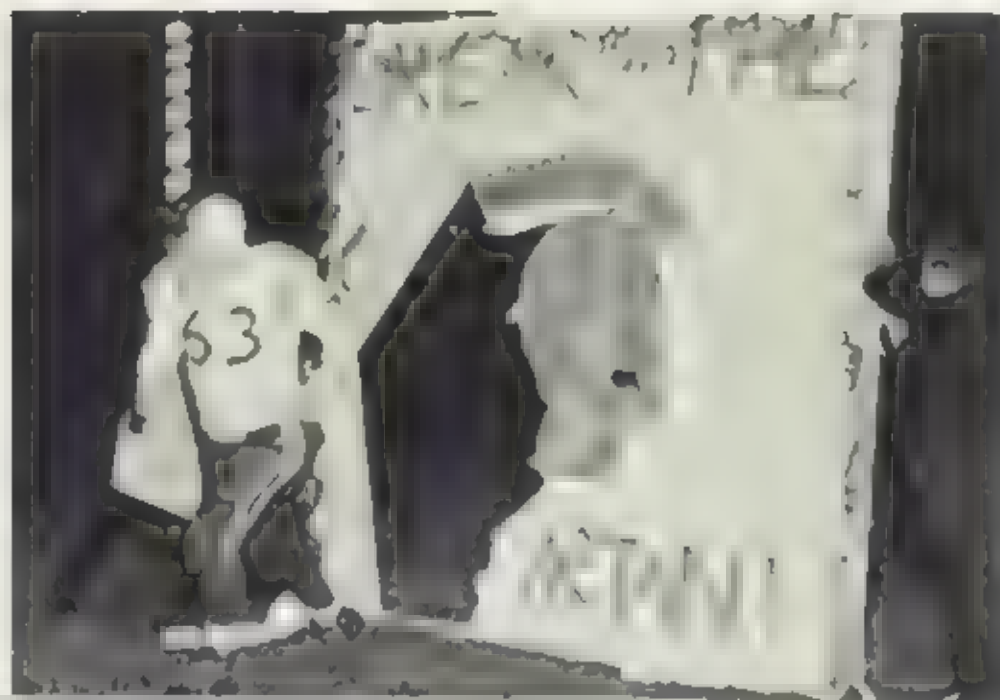

After a thrilling Spartan victory on the gridiron, the homecoming celebraters danced the hours away at a special hop in the cafeteria. The evening concluded when Audrey Machak, the 1964 homecoming queen, crowned the 1965 Homecoming Queen, Candy Plumb.

DETERMINANTS PUBLISH NEWSPAPER

Mary Ann Gregorash works on the Math Club newspaper.

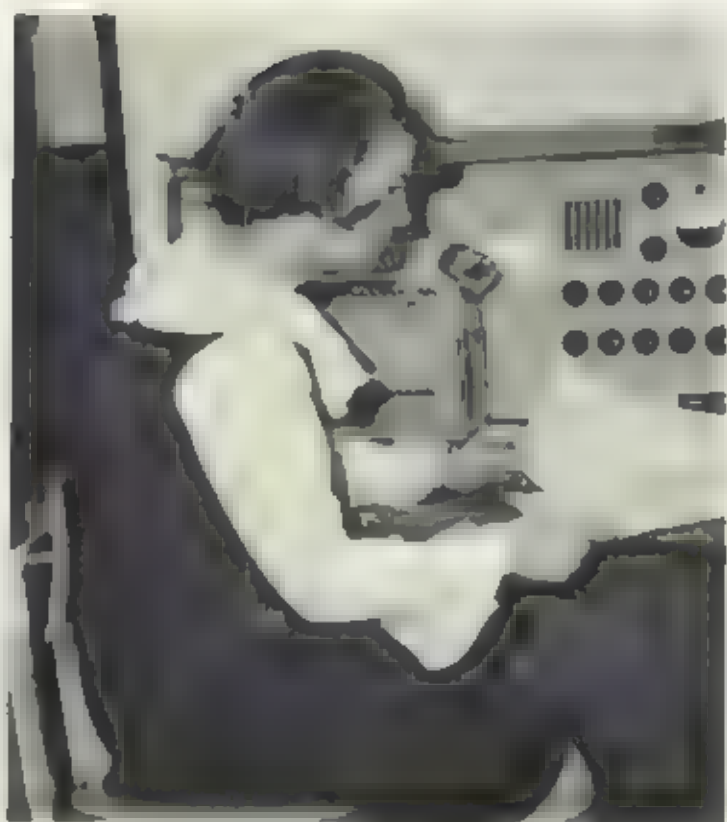

Striving to interest students in the various phases and aspects of mathematics was the sole purpose of the Determinants. With every intention of proving that math can be an interesting and intriguing adventure throughout the year were its officers: Bruce Leinen, President; Cindy Faklis, Vice-President; and Mary Ann Gregorash, Secretary-Treasurer.

President Bruce established a firm foundation during the year by having guest speakers, a field trip, and a project in which members of the club lectured classes on pertinent subjects.

Mr. Houghton, sponsor behind the scenes, assisted the members in publishing their monthly paper "The Determinant." Cindy Faklis and Ellen Mason headed the paper which included various card tricks, riddles, puzzles, and other facets of the math field. All in all, it was a successful year for the math club members as they gained recognition as a contributing organization to school life.

STUDENT AND CADET TEACHING HIGHLIGHT YEAR

Student and cadet teaching highlighted the Future Teachers of America's busy schedule this year. Several students did cadet teaching in Valley View Grade School in the spring.

As in the past the FTA assisted Miss Munn in the setting up, managing, and cleaning up of the book fair in the fall. Also, club members helped to decorate the school for Christmas.

Field trips and guest speakers were among the educational project carried out by the club.

The FTA finished the year with a picnic.

The "citizens" seem to enjoy life in Green Valley

GREEN VALLEY

Dazzling scenery and humorous dialogue set the stage for one of the most successful plays of Lockport West High School. Although it was sponsored by the Junior Class, students from all classes displayed their talents and skills. The story centers around Eldon Berry, the last living descendant of the Berry clan. He owns the small paradise of Green Valley where the strangest things happen. But Tobias J. Everheel, a wheelin'-dealin' land grabber, tries his best to fenagle Eldon out of his land. That's where the ancestors turn over in their graves and come back as spirits to assist Eldon to regain the mysterious Green Valley.

Grandpaw Berry (Dale Alvey) trips up the slick, land grabbing Everheel (Bob Combie), but Prim Stokes (Chris Tingley) and Eldon Berry (Bill Dropak) seem to have fallen for each other.

MURDER TAKES THE VEIL, sponsored by the Senior Class and the first mystery-comedy performed at Lockport West, made its debut on Friday, April 1, and also ran a performance on Saturday April 2, 1966. The story takes place at St. Aurelien's an all-girls college located in the swamps of Louisiana. The school is under the direction of Mother Theodore, an understanding but strict superior. The action begins the day she hires three male instructors to her previous all-sister faculty. Murder comedy, and a thrilling plot gave the play a mysterious but delightful story, indeed

Tony Rodrique interrogates Chris Tingley as Jan Peterson looks on with disapproval

"I'd give a skinned monkey to know where I'm at," grumbles Tom Dodd

"Frankly the trip was unbearable; even the train began to lag when they got near the swampwater," Bob Cambic complains to John Levesque

SCHOLARSHIP, LEADERSHIP, SERVICE, AND CHARACTER

Scholarship, leadership, service, and character are four traits which are found in a member of the National Honor Society. The National Honor Society's aim is to carry out a plan to display these characteristics as well as possible.

Members of the National Honor Society serve as guides for open house (this year). They also sponsored many candy sales and donated money to the school to buy trees for the campus.

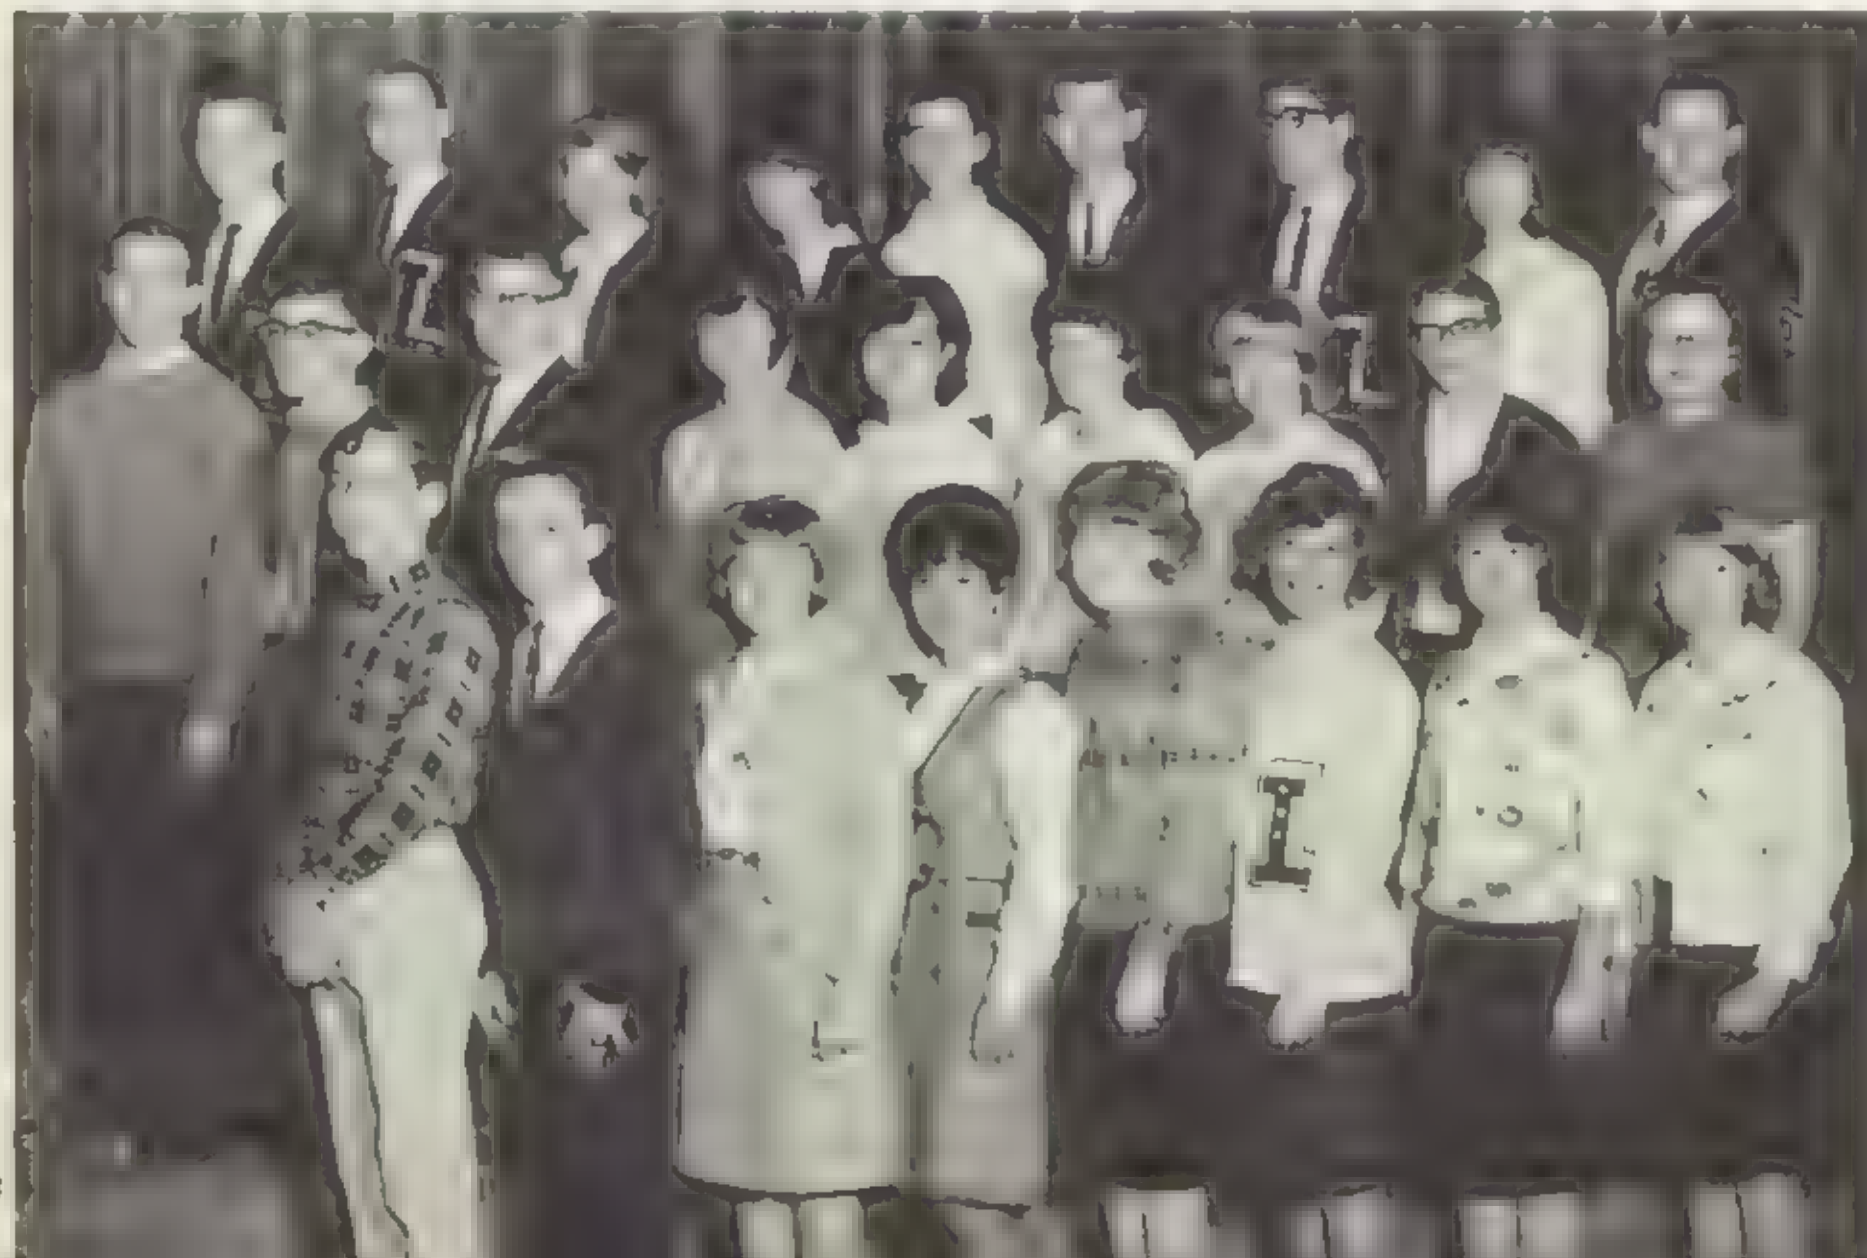

The officers, Bruce Leinen, president, Mary Ann Gregorash, secretary; Ann Brown, treasurer; and Ed Gornik, vice-president worked together diligently in order to maintain the efficiency that an organization such as this needs.

Coach Deskin and Captain Earl Smith looked forward to an exciting season

The Spartans welcomed their new coach, Mr. Mel Deskin, by rolling over Wheaton North by a six point margin and Marion Catholic by a two point margin in the first two games of the season. In the Homecoming Game against Bradley, the Spartan eleven cooled the Boilermakers by a score of 21 to 19. Two consecutive setbacks were delivered by Rich Central and Tinley Park to Deskin's "Devils." After a scoreless deadlock with Thornton Fractional South, the Spartans climaxed the season with a 7-2 victory over the eleven of Crete-Monee. The final season's performance, a loss to Thornton Fractional North, left the Spartans with an overall record of 4-3-1, the best season for the LWHS team

John Levesque practices to keep his record-breaking style

Although confronted with a tough season in the Southeast Suburban Conference, the Lockport West harriers obtained fifth place in the conference standings, their best record since entering competition. John Levesque led the Spartans in every meet, finishing first against Bradley and second against Joliet East. In addition Levesque set a time of 9:33—the fastest time for a Spartan on the 1.9 mile course. Lorenz Merfeld, Jerry Mohler, and Tom Ward finished second, third, and fourth for the Spartans in the last four matches of the season. Chuck Oldham and Bill Olson also ran in the first four for the Spartans. The fine running of Levesque (second), Oldham (sixth), Olson (seventh), Ward (eighth), and Ken Pirz (ninth) against Joliet East and Levesque (third), Merfeld (fourth), Mohler (fifth), and Ward (eighth) against Bradley enabled the West harriers to win the first and fifth meets of the season. The Spartans finished with a 2-6 record.

With the acquisition of new equipment such as electric typeand teachers in the school, the Business Dept. was further able to fulfill their aim—preparing students for future careers in the business world. For the first time this year, certificates of proficiency will be given to students completing the course of study in three areas: clerical, general, and secretarial

With the return of Thomas Heggerty, the Math Dept. staff was increased to meet rising enrollments. Some events of the 1965-1966 school year concerning mathematics were the National Math Contest, which Mr. Green states, "offers a difficult and stimulating challenge for better students," and an assembly about college mathematics at which Dr. Anice Seybald, Head

The big news in the PE Department this year was the arrival of the trampoline. Both boys and girls found the trampoline to be a challenge to their physical abilities.

Physical fitness tests were given in the fall and some students were assigned to adaptive physical education in an attempt to improve performances in areas showing weakness. The tests were given in the spring to measure student progress.

The coaches and Mr. Kappmeyer looked forward to the beginning of play in the new conference, the Illini Eight.
